Hell Jason and Dave – coincidentally, I received an e-mail just yesterday from our COO who informed me that, after a discussion among senior UF administrators, the university has determined not pursue a purchase of the AGR property or enforcement of the restrictive covenants. I have already spoken to the AGR attorney to let her know of this decision. Again, thanks so much for looking out for us and for your patience. Sorry we had to delay this matter from your last board meeting, but it now looks like it's full steam ahead for everyone.

Kind regards,

Colt,

I hope this finds you well. I was just informed – and I thought you deserved to know – that the prospective deadline for September's agenda is Thursday, August 24. We understand you're doing your best to wrangle a response for UF, and to that end, we're not entirely inflexible on the date. That said, the Department has been fielding input from a variety of sources on this one, and it's my understanding that we'd like to conclude the matter at the next board meeting. We'd just ask that you keep us informed as to any developments.

Jason

Thanks Dave. I will circulate this to the appropriate UF folks and try to get you at least an initial response ASAP.

Chris,

Hope you're well, and thanks for the reminder. I've drafted and attached a cover sheet, along with supporting documentation. I had some basic questions re: the cover, which I've noted in the draft. Would appreciate your input as you feel appropriate. Many thanks.

Jason

Good morning,

Today we are supposed to send the agenda to the Board but I'm still missing documents for the items below. Also, will Gadsden be added to the agenda or did they submit a plan that meets the Commissioner's conditions?

Review of Turnaround Option Plan for Alachua County (Still need cover sheet and supporting documentation)
Review of Turnaround Option Plan for Hamilton County(Still need cover sheet and supporting documentation)

State Board of Education Right of First Refusal (We've recently been approached by a corporation selling a property located in Gainesville, Florida. The property is currently encumbered by a deed restriction giving the Florida Board of Education right of first refusal in all property sales) (Still need cover sheet and supporting documentation)
