

Celebrate Literacy Week, Florida!

January 25 – 29, 2021

Humanity tells a story: What's YOUR chapter?

District: Lafayette School: Lafayette Elementary

The week will kick off with the meaning of Humanity and encouraging students to think about what they can do to make a difference for humanity. Students will also understand that they will read about different people and organizations that have had an effect on humanity.

Monday, January 25, 2021	What is YOUR sports chapter? Students, faculty and staff will wear their favorite sports or team attire. Teachers will read a biography about a famous athlete to or with their students, and the students will discuss how this athlete has affected humanity. Mr. Clark, principal, will talk with 4th and 5th graders about sports in his life. Students will begin to plan how they will make a difference for humanity.
Tuesday, January 26, 2021	What is YOUR leadership chapter? Students, faculty and staff will dress nicely like a “president”. Readings about former presidents and discussions of the effects they had on humanity will take place in the classroom. Students will compare and contrast the effects the athlete and the president have had on humanity and continue to plan how they will make a difference for humanity.
Wednesday, January 27, 2021	What is YOUR environmental chapter? Students, faculty and staff will dress like an environmentalist, farmer, forester, etc... Readings pertaining to protecting the environment will be read in the classroom. Weather permitting, teachers will have outside reading time with students. As a class students will give ways to protect the environment for all humanity. Individually, students will begin writing THEIR chapter. The genre will be student choice. Examples include but not limited to - timeline, poem, essay, narrative, paragraph, picture
Thursday, January 28, 2021	What is YOUR protective chapter? Students, faculty and staff will dress in camouflage, military green or tan, to protect the freedom for humanity to read. Readings pertaining to US Freedom will be read (books from B.E.S.T. Civic Literacy Reading List – suggested). Students will continue writing THEIR chapter. SRO Jay Harris and Superintendent Robby Edwards, veterans will be thanked at lunches for their CHAPTERS in the military and preserving the rights of humanity.
Friday, January 29, 2021	What is YOUR Hornet chapter? Students, faculty and staff will dress in the Hornet colors – Red, white, black, gray, silver. Hornet choice reading. Weather permitting, everyone will read on the front lawn of school at 2:10. Students will complete THEIR chapter. Mrs. Newman, assistant principal, will talk to grades K-3 about Hornet responsibility to humanity.

Students' writings will be bound into books and housed in the Media Center.
