

Celebrate Literacy Week, Florida! January 25-29, 2021

District: Levy

Monday

Bronson Middle High School (6-12)- Launch Eagle Tik Tok Challenge- Students will be tasked with determining a favorite book and evaluating the impact that book has had on their lives. They will then develop a creative 60 second video sharing that information with their school community. Prizes will be awarded to top-placing students. #BRONSONREADS

Bronson Elementary School (Pre-K-5)- Focus for the Week-Pre-K– 2nd – Read with a family member or friend a civics-related book provided lists, including the Florida’s B.E.S.T. Standards Civics Booklist. Illustrate what was learned and include a dictated or written paragraph describing the illustration. 3rd – 5th – Read a book from Florida’s B.E.S.T. Standards Civics Booklist and draw on information and inspiration from the book and write a proposal on how you would like to affect change.

Cedar Key School (Pre-K-12)-Principal introduces Literacy Week (via morning announcements);Classroom ELA/READING teachers announce:THE CK PANDEMIC CHAPTER LITERACY CHALLENGE

- individual or class submission; use medium of choice art, song, essay, poem, photo,video ;tell your pandemic experience, your chapter in history ; submit by Thursday ; win a 1st,2nd,3rd place gift card

Chiefland Elementary School (Pre-K-5)- Surfs up for reading! Bring a towel and sunglasses to read outside while soaking up the rays with a good book. Launch Celebrate Literacy at-home Bingo!

Chiefland Middle High School (6-12)- Daily announcements: “Humanity” quotes and corresponding challenges. In ELA classes: Focus topic “Righteous Among the Nations” (those who selflessly helped Holocaust victims); Today: Build background: Definition of Humanity: study together; complete a Wordle or an acrostic; In contrast, the antithesis of ‘humanity’ is the Holocaust-Show Holocaust informational video, teach 5 vocab words: Holocaust, genocide, antisemitism, extermination, inferior; EQ: Can humanity be found amongst atrocities? How? Who?; Introduce the idea that many people made important sacrifices (even risked their own lives) to help those who were persecuted during the Holocaust. (Ex: The Frank Family helpers) In Science classes, study “The Boy Who Harnessed the Wind.”

Joyce Bullock Elementary School (Pre-K-2)- I AM HUMAN! Reading Coach will share a Kick Off video of her reading the book “I Am Human!” and explaining Literacy Week. Introduce BINGO BOARD and send home to bring literacy week into the home. Daily- Stop drop and read time in classrooms; Book of the Day Contest on the morning announcements- a quote will be shared and teachers can email in the matching book title for a certificate.

Williston Elementary School (3-5)- Digital Escape Room- Students work collaboratively in groups of 2 or 3 in order to escape or breakout. They are challenged to solve puzzles in order to find clues and codes. Tasks in this escape room will center around inferencing, cause and effect, and homophones.

Williston Middle High School (6-12)- All Week- Teachers will display “Favorite Books” outside their classroom door; Book Hunt- Every day an email will go out containing a clue to a book in the Media Center, the first staff member to locate the book will receive a gift card prize!; Golden Books- Teachers will read clues to their classes daily and the first student in the class period to respond correctly gets a goodie bag to enjoy; Student Contests- Bookmark creation contest and “Where I’m From” poetry creation contest will be ongoing throughout the week with winners awarded at the end of the week; Get Caught Reading Tickets- Students who are caught reading throughout the week will receive a tag from their teacher to redeem with the reading coaches for a prize.

Yankeetown School (Pre-K-8)- Read My Shirt (Wear a shirt with appropriate words on it.) Daily- Drop Everything and Read time in classrooms, Principal will share a “Humanity” themed quote on the morning announcements, at-home Bingo challenge with prizes awarded on Fridays.

Tuesday

Bronson Middle High School (6-12)- Continue Eagle Tik Tok Challenge- Students will be tasked with determining a favorite book and evaluating the impact that book has had on their lives. They will then develop a creative 60 second video sharing that information with their school community. Prizes will be awarded to top-placing students. #BRONSONREADS

Bronson Elementary School (Pre-K-5)- Focus for the Week-Pre-K– 2nd – Read with a family member or friend a civics-related book provided lists, including the Florida’s B.E.S.T. Standards Civics Booklist. Illustrate what was learned and include a dictated or written paragraph describing the illustration. 3rd – 5th – Read a book from Florida’s B.E.S.T. Standards Civics Booklist and draw on information and inspiration from the book and write a proposal on how you would like to affect change.

Cedar Key School (Pre-K-12)- READ ALOUD- Teacher begins each class with a short read aloud of his or her choosing; Dress up- Wear a school-appropriate shirt with words on it!

Chiefland Elementary School (Pre-K-5)- Poem in your pocket! Students choose a favorite poem and read to a partner.

Chiefland Middle High School (6-12)- Daily announcements: “Humanity” quote and challenge
In ELA classes: Continue focus from yesterday with Miep Gies activity. In Science classes, study “The Boy Who Harnessed the Wind.”

Joyce Bullock Elementary School (Pre-K-2)- I have BIG DREAMS. I see possibility. Dress up as your dream job or to impress at your dream job interview. Read books in class about different professions during centers this week and write about your dream job. Daily- Stop drop and read time in classrooms; Book of the Day Contest on the morning announcements- a quote will be shared and teachers can email in the matching book title for a certificate.

Williston Elementary School (3-5)- Author and Book Matching Quizziz- Students will work collaboratively to match characters to book titles, authors to books, etc. using the digital Quizziz platform.

Williston Middle High School (6-12)- All Week- Teachers will display “Favorite Books” outside their classroom door; Book Hunt- Every day an email will go out containing a clue to a book in the Media Center, the first staff member to locate the book will receive a gift card prize!; Golden Books- Teachers will read clues to their classes daily and the first student in the class period to respond correctly gets a goodie bag to enjoy; Student Contests- Bookmark creation contest and “Where I’m From” poetry creation contest will be ongoing throughout the week with winners awarded at the end of the week; Get Caught Reading Tickets- Students who are caught reading throughout the week will receive a tag from their teacher to redeem with the reading coaches for a prize.

Yankeetown School (Pre-K-8)- Reading Rocks My Socks! (Wear wacky or mismatched socks). Daily- Drop Everything and Read time in classrooms, Principal will share a “Humanity” themed quote on the morning announcements, at-home Bingo challenge with prizes awarded on Fridays.

Wednesday

Bronson Middle High School (6-12)- Continue Eagle Tik Tok Challenge- Students will be tasked with determining a favorite book and evaluating the impact that book has had on their lives. They will then develop a creative 60 second video sharing that information with their school community. Prizes will be awarded to top-placing students. #BRONSONREADS

Bronson Elementary School (Pre-K-5)- Focus for the Week-Pre-K– 2nd – Read with a family member or friend a civics-related book provided lists, including the Florida’s B.E.S.T. Standards Civics Booklist. Illustrate what was learned and include a dictated or written paragraph describing the illustration. 3rd – 5th – Read a book from Florida’s B.E.S.T. Standards Civics Booklist and draw on information and inspiration from the book and write a proposal on how you would like to affect change.

Cedar Key School (Pre-K-12)- DECORATE A DOOR Theme: Favorite Chapter in a Favorite Book OR Favorite Character in a Favorite Book

Chiefland Elementary School (Pre-K-5)- Snuggle up with a good book. Wear your pajamas and find some time to snuggle up and READ.

Chiefland Middle High School (6-12)- Daily announcements: “Humanity” quote and challenge; In ELA classes: Study accounts of other people who helped Holocaust victims- Carl Lutz, Freddie and Truus Oversteegen, Johan Van Hulst, Virginia Hall. In Science classes, study “The Boy Who Harnessed the Wind.”

Joyce Bullock Elementary School (Pre-K-2)- I have a feeling of WONDER. I am amazed by Nature. Take a nature walk around campus and find a shady spot under a tree to enjoy a good book. Use this opportunity to show students JBE’s Little Free Library (the teacher can explain the purpose of the library and how the student can utilize it in the future). Daily- Stop drop and read time in classrooms; Book of the Day Contest on the morning announcements- a quote will be shared and teachers can email in the matching book title for a certificate.

Williston Elementary School (3-5)-Vocabulary Parade-Students dress up as a vocabulary word and parade around their pod during intervention time.

Williston Middle High School (6-12)- All Week- Teachers will display “Favorite Books” outside their classroom door; Book Hunt- Every day an email will go out containing a clue to a book in the Media Center, the first staff member to locate the book will receive a gift card prize!; Golden Books- Teachers will read clues to their classes daily and the first student in the class period to respond correctly gets a goodie bag to enjoy; Student Contests- Bookmark creation contest and “Where I’m From” poetry creation contest will be ongoing throughout the week with winners awarded at the end of the week; Get Caught Reading Tickets- Students who are caught reading throughout the week will receive a tag from their teacher to redeem with the reading coaches for a prize. Wednesday ONLY-Reading is POPPIN’- Popcorn cart will be coming around that day for teachers and students who are caught with books or reading.

Yankeetown School (Pre-K-8)- Reading Makes You Bright! (Wear bright colors to show how bright you can be!) Daily- Drop Everything and Read time in classrooms, Principal will share a “Humanity” themed quote on the morning announcements, at-home Bingo challenge with prizes awarded on Fridays.

Thursday

Bronson Middle High School (6-12)- Continue Eagle Tik Tok Challenge- Students will be tasked with determining a favorite book and evaluating the impact that book has had on their lives. They will then develop a creative 60 second video sharing that information with their school community. Prizes will be awarded to top-placing students. #BRONSONREADS

Bronson Elementary School (Pre-K-5)- Focus for the Week-Pre-K– 2nd – Read with a family member or friend a civics-related book provided lists, including the Florida’s B.E.S.T. Standards Civics Booklist. Illustrate what was learned and include a dictated or written paragraph describing the illustration. 3rd – 5th – Read a book from Florida’s B.E.S.T. Standards Civics Booklist and draw on information and inspiration from the book and write a proposal on how you would like to affect change.

Cedar Key School (Pre-K-12)- CREATE a SELFIE POEM- Take a picture, Write a poem "THIS IS WHO I AM!", Display in classroom

Chiefland Elementary School (Pre-K-5)- Team up for reading! Wear your favorite Sports Jersey. Team up with a partner and enjoy a book together.

Chiefland Middle High School (6-12)- Daily announcements: “Humanity” quote and challenge; In ELA classes: Study account of Oskar Schindler. In Science classes, study “The Boy Who Harnessed the Wind.”

Joyce Bullock Elementary School (Pre-K-2)-I find joy in friendships. Pair up and buddy read a favorite book with students in your class or another class. If you choose to buddy read with another class, make the visit under 15 minutes and assure adequate spacing (try it outdoors). Use kind words to compliment your buddy's choice of book or their reading. Daily- Stop drop and read time in classrooms; Book of the Day Contest on the morning announcements- a quote will be shared and teachers can email in the matching book title for a certificate.

Williston Elementary School (3-5)- Book Tasting- Teachers host an experience in their classrooms designed to expose students to new choices and genres and build excitement for reading.

Williston Middle High School (6-12)- All Week- Teachers will display “Favorite Books” outside their classroom door; Book Hunt- Every day an email will go out containing a clue to a book in the Media Center, the first staff member to locate the book will receive a gift card prize!; Golden Books- Teachers will read clues to their classes daily and the first student in the class period to respond correctly gets a goodie bag to enjoy; Student Contests- Bookmark creation contest and “Where I’m From” poetry creation contest will be ongoing throughout the week with winners awarded at the end of the week; Get Caught Reading Tickets- Students who are caught reading throughout the week will receive a tag from their teacher to redeem with the reading coaches for a prize.

Yankeetown School (Pre-K-8)- Wild About Reading! (Wear animal print clothes.) Daily- Drop Everything and Read time in classrooms, Principal will share a “Humanity” themed quote on the morning announcements, at-home Bingo challenge with prizes awarded on Fridays.

Friday

Bronson Middle High School (6-12)- Winners of the Eagle Tik Tok Challenge announced!

Bronson Elementary School (Pre-K-5)- Focus for the Week-Pre-K– 2nd – Read with a family member or friend a civics-related book provided lists, including the Florida’s B.E.S.T. Standards Civics Booklist. Illustrate what was learned and include a dictated or written paragraph describing the illustration. 3rd – 5th – Read a book from Florida’s B.E.S.T. Standards Civics Booklist and draw on information and inspiration from the book and write a proposal on how you would like to affect change.

Cedar Key School (Pre-K-12)- A Socially-Distanced Walk Thru to see Classroom Doors and visit Pandemic Chapter Literacy Display in auditorium

Chiefland Elementary School (Pre-K-5)- Flash Light Friday! Turn off the lights and spend some time with a good book. Bingo sheets due on Monday!

Chiefland Middle High School (6-12)- Daily announcements: “Humanity” quote and challenge; In ELA classes: Optional research project; wrap up any lessons from the week. In Science classes, study “The Boy Who Harnessed the Wind.”

Joyce Bullock Elementary School (Pre-K-2)-I am not alone. I am connected to my community and my world. We will welcome SGA students from WMHS to read to a few classes around 9:30 (11 pairs of students) and we encourage you to invite a guest reader through Zoom of your choosing. Daily- Stop drop and read time in classrooms; Book of the Day Contest on the morning announcements- a quote will be shared and teachers can email in the matching book title for a certificate.

Williston Elementary School (3-5)- Guest Readers- 3rd Grade- readers from the high school, 4th and 5th- Principal read aloud video

Williston Middle High School (6-12)- All Week- Teachers will display “Favorite Books” outside their classroom door; Book Hunt- Every day an email will go out containing a clue to a book in the Media Center, the first staff member to locate the book will receive a gift card prize!; Golden Books- Teachers will read clues to their classes daily and the first student in the class period to respond correctly gets a goodie bag to enjoy; Student Contests- Bookmark creation contest and “Where I’m From” poetry creation contest will be ongoing throughout the week with winners awarded at the end of the week; Get Caught Reading Tickets- Students who are caught reading throughout the week will receive a tag from their teacher to redeem with the reading coaches for a prize. Friday ONLY-Reading is FUN -SGA members will be going to JBE and WES to read to their students.

Yankeetown School (Pre-K-8)- Wild About Reading! (Wear animal print clothes.) Team up with Reading! (Wear a sports team shirt.) Daily- Drop Everything and Read time in classrooms, Principal will share a “Humanity” themed quote on the morning announcements, at-home Bingo challenge with prizes awarded on Fridays.