

Celebrate Literacy Week, Florida!
January 24-28, 2022

District: Franklin

Monday, January 24th

Poetry Jam

Reading of New Day's Lyric by Amanda Gorman,
Poet Laureate of the US.

Students will reflect on grade level appropriate questions and write a poem of their own. Kindles will be awarded to the winning poem for each grade level.

Tuesday,
January 25th

Media Literacy

"How Do We Know What We Know"? Media Literacy Quiz. Discerning domains ending with .com, .org, .edu, .gov

Upper Elementary and Secondary will examine internet sources and bias

K - 2 will participate in class discussions about what is real and not real.

Wednesday,
January 26th

Words That Inspire You

Students will consider words or phrases that inspire or have inspired them. K - 2 will consider words that make them happy or excited. Grades 3 - 12 will write their word or phrase (and any explanation they wish) on a white sheet of paper. Photos will be taken of students and their words in black and white to focus on the word/phrase itself. Photos will be merged into a collage for publication.

Thursday,
January 27th

Be A Good Sport and Read Day

Students and Staff will be invited to wear their favorite sports attire. Athletes from various FCS sports teams will read to Elementary students in their classrooms. We will participate in 15 minutes of DEAR (Drop Everything And Read) across the campus. The poem Casey At The Bat will be read over the intercom.

Friday,
January 28th

What's Your Song? Day

Students will consider the power of words in music. Some staff will quote/sing lyrics to a song that has affected them profoundly. Classroom discussions on how songs tell stories and express emotion. Students will be challenged to write a song. Focus should be on lyrics, not the tune of the music.

A trivia question will be posed each morning on the intercom and winners will be awarded small prizes.