This year, the Florida Legislature passed and Governor Ron DeSantis signed Senate Bill 7098, a bill related to death benefits, and House Bill 7099, a bill related to child welfare. These two pieces of legislation will require institutional action, involving a review of processes.

HB 7099- Child welfare

HB 7099 amends s. 1009.25, F.S., to include individuals classified under s. 39.6225, F.S. (Guardianship Assistance Program) in the exemption of tuition and fees, including lab fees, at a school district that provides workforce education programs, or at FCS institutions or state universities. The effective date is July 1, 2019.

Technical centers may need to review processes and identify required documentation for individuals who claim the waiver and/or exemption. The Department will be providing more in-depth guidance on this topic in the coming months. As a reminder, both bills took effect July 1, 2019. To that end, institutions shall remain committed to serving this population of students as prescribed in the current law until further guidance is issued.
